

Chapel Bay
Chapel Bay Fort
Lime Kilns
West Angle Bay
Medieval graveyard
Brickworks
North Studdock
Hibernia
School
The Globe
Nunnery
Tower
Seamen's Chapel
Dovecote
Lifeboat Cottages
Old Point House
Lifeboat Station
Angle Point
East Angle Bay
Rectory
to Windmill

P P

ANGLE

The map shows a coastal area with a central landmass labeled 'ANGLE'. A dashed teal line indicates a walking route that starts at the 'Fort' on 'Thorn Island', goes to 'Chapel Bay Fort', 'Lime Kilns', 'Medieval graveyard', 'Brickworks', 'North Studdock', 'Hibernia', 'School', 'The Globe', 'Nunnery', 'Tower', 'Seamen's Chapel', 'Dovecote', 'Lifeboat Cottages', 'Old Point House', 'Lifeboat Station', and ends at 'Angle Point'. A solid teal line shows a road or path connecting 'Brickworks' to 'Hibernia', 'The Globe', 'Nunnery', 'Tower', 'Seamen's Chapel', and 'Rectory'. An arrow points from 'Rectory' towards 'to Windmill'. Two parking areas are marked with a 'P' in a black square: one near 'Brickworks' and another near 'Hibernia'. The 'Hibernia' area also has a fork and knife icon. The map is divided into 'West Angle Bay', 'Chapel Bay', and 'East Angle Bay'. A small inset map in the top left shows the location of 'Fort' on 'Thorn Island'.